

Autumn is Törggele time

Autumn is the great time of "Törggelen", the time of snacks, where according to ancient custom bacon, cheese, chestnuts are served with a delicious drop of wine. The word "törggelen" comes from the Latin "torculum", which means wine press. Torggel is the room where the press is located and where first of all the new wine is tasted.

"Törggele friends" will certainly not miss out on the Ritten, they can walk through colorful chestnut forests from one "Buschenschank" to another. "Buschenschänken" are farm inns that serve their own products in paneled parlors or under arbors.

Törggele hiking tips on the Ritten sunny plateau:

From Klobenstein, take path 11 to Siffian to the Buschenschank Biohof Rielinger. From there continue along the red marked Keschnweg to Unterinn (walking time approx. two hours). From Unterinn take path 12 to Wolfsgruben to the stop of the Rittner Bahn (walking time approx. 45 minutes). There you can take the Rittner narrow-gauge railroad to Klobenstein or to Oberbozen every half hour.

From Oberbozen to Maria Himmelfahrt continue along path 2 until you reach the sign where hiking path 2a leads to the Ebnicherhof (refreshment stop). From Ebnicherhof follow path 2 further to Bolzano. (Walking time approx. 2.5 hours with approx. 900 meters of altitude difference). Return with the Rittner cable car, which starts every 4 minutes or with the bus 165, which runs every half hour from Monday to Friday and every hour on Saturdays and Sundays to Klobenstein. From Oberbozen to the earth pyramids, past there and down on the "Keschnweg" over the "Rivelaunbach" to the other side of the valley to Signat. Along the "Keschnweg" to Unterinn. From there take the path 12b and 12 up to Wolfsgruben and path 15 to Oberbozen back to the starting point. Or from Wolfsgruben with the railway of Ritten every half hour back to Oberbozen. Walking time approx. 3-4 hours.

From Lengstein south of the church, hiking trail 9 begins and leads down to the Zunerhof (refreshment stop), an old farmhouse with beautiful frescoes on the house wall. Next to it, on a porphyry hilltop, is the little church of St. Andreas in Antlas (key at the Zunerhof). From the Zunerhof the red marked Keschnweg starts, always with a view of the other side of the Eisack valley to the Braun farm and further to the Penzlhof farm, from there you reach the St. Verena little church on path 8a, after about 20 minutes walking time (viewing only possible through the window), walking time about 2.5 to 3 hours. The same way back to the Penzlhof and then either on the Keschnweg back with a view to the west or via the "Lengsteiner Rundwanderweg". From Lengstein every hour with the bus 165 back to Klobenstein.

For the hikes we recommend the Ritten hiking map on a scale of 1:25,000 from the Ritten Tourism Association.

"To the farmer the harvest, to the hiker the landscape", please leave the farmer his harvest by not collecting chestnuts and nuts, because it is the livelihood of our farmers! Thank you for your understanding.
